COLLECTIVE ACTION

1268 2nd Ave. LLC d/b/a
Serena's Wine Bar and Hasan Senyurt,

Defendants

Plaintiff Carlos Huber Hernandez, by and through his undersigned attorneys, for his complaint against defendants allege as follows, on behalf of himself and on behalf of all other persons similarly situated:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff Carlos Huber Hernandez, on behalf of himself and all other persons similarly situated, current and former employees of defendants 1268 2nd Ave. LLC and Hasan Senyurt, who elect to opt into this action pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA"), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), allege that he is entitled to: (i) compensation for wages paid at less than the statutory minimum wage, (ii) unpaid wages from defendants for overtime work for which he did not receive overtime premium pay as required by law, and (iii) liquidated damages pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq., because the defendants' violations lacked a good faith basis.

2. Plaintiff further complains that he is entitled to (i) compensation for wages paid at less than the statutory minimum wage; (ii) back wages for overtime work for which the defendants willfully failed to pay overtime premium pay as required by the New York Labor Law §§ 650 et seq. and the supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations; (iii) compensation for the defendants' violations of the "spread of hours" requirements of New York Labor Law; (iv) compensation for the defendants' illegal deductions from gratuities under New York Labor Law §§ 196-d and 663; (v) liquidated damages pursuant to New York Labor Law for these violations; and (vi) statutory damages for the defendants' violation of the Wage Theft Prevention Act.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

16. Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 206 and § 207, Plaintiffs seek to prosecute their FLSA claims as a collective action on behalf of a collective group of persons defined as follows:

All persons who are or were formerly employed by defendants in the United States at any time since August 18, 2019, to the entry of judgment in this case (the "Collective Action Period"), who were restaurant employees, and who were not paid statutory minimum wages and/or overtime compensation at rates at least one-and-one-half times the regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of forty hours per workweek (the "Collective Action Members").

17. The Collective Action Members are similarly situated to Plaintiff in that they were employed by defendants as non-exempt employees, and were denied payment at the statutory minimum wage and/or were denied premium overtime pay for hours worked beyond forty hours in a week.

18. They are further similarly situated in that defendants had a policy and practice of knowingly and willfully refusing to pay them the minimum wage or overtime.

19. Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members perform or performed the same or similar primary duties, and were subjected to the same policies and practices by defendants.

20. The exact number of such individuals is presently unknown, but is known by defendants and can be ascertained through appropriate discovery.

FACTS

21. At all relevant times herein, the defendants owned and operated Serena's Wine Bar, a restaurant located at 1268 Second Avenue in Manhattan, New York.

22. Plaintiff Carlos Huber Hernandez was employed at Serena's Wine Bar, from approximately January 1, 2017, until July 12, 2022.

23. Mr. Hernandez was employed and had work duties in the kitchen such as making salad, preparing deliveries, dishwasher and cooking pasta.

24. Mr. Hernandez's work was performed in the normal course of defendant's business, was integrated into the business of defendant, and did/does not involve executive or administrative responsibilities.

25. At all relevant times herein, Mr. Hernandez was an employee engaged in commerce and/or in the production of goods for commerce, as defined in the FLSA and its implementing regulations.

26. From January 2017 through March 2020, Mr. Hernandez worked a regular schedule six days per week, from 10:00 am until 11:00 pm on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, 10:00 am until 11:30 pm on Thursday and Friday, 5:00 pm until 10: 00 pm on Sunday with Saturday off.

27. As a result, he was working approximately 71 hours per week during that period of his employment by the defendant.

28. From June 15, 2020 to May 8, 2022, Mr. Hernandez worked a regular schedule six days per week, from 10: 00 am until 11:30 pm on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 5:00 pm until 11:30 pm on Friday, with Saturday off.

29. As a result, he was working approximately 81 hours per week during that period of his employment by the defendant.

30. Mr. Hernandez was paid in company checks and personal check at the rate of $12 per hour throughout his employment by Defendant.

31. The plaintiff received the weekly amounts described herein above for all hours worked each week, regardless of the exact number of hours worked in a given week.

32. As a result, Plaintiff's effective rates of pay were each below the statutory New York City minimum wage in effect at relevant times.

33. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff an amount at least equal to the New York City minimum wage in effect during relevant time periods was willful, and lacked a good faith basis.

34. Plaintiff has been paid in cash and check throughout his employment by the defendants and did not receive compliant paystubs or wage statements with his.

37. Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff an additional hour's pay at the minimum wage for each day he worked a shift lasting in excess of ten hours from start to finish ("spread-of-hours premium").

38. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with a written notice providing the information required by the Wage Theft Prevention Act - including, inter alia, the defendants' contact information, the regular and overtime rates, and intended allowances claimed - and failed to obtain Plaintiff's signature acknowledging the same, in violation of the Wage Theft Prevention Act in effect at the time.

39. Defendants failed to provide the plaintiff with weekly records of his compensation and hours worked, in violation of the Wage Theft Prevention Act.

40. Upon information and belief, throughout both periods of plaintiff's employment, both before that time (throughout the Collective Action Period) and continuing until today, defendants have likewise employed other individuals like plaintiffs (the "Collective Action Members") in positions at defendants' restaurant that required little skill, no capital investment, and with duties and responsibilities that did not include any managerial responsibilities or the exercise of independent judgment.

41. Defendants applied the same employment policies, practices, and procedures to all Collective Action Members, including policies, practices, and procedures with respect to the payment of minimum wages and overtime.

42. Upon information and belief, Defendants have failed to pay these other individuals at a rate at least equal to the minimum wage, in violation of the FLSA and the New York Labor Law.

43. Upon information and belief, these other individuals have worked in excess of forty hours per week, yet defendants have likewise failed to pay them overtime compensation of one-and-one-half times their regular hourly rate in violation of the FLSA and the New York Labor Law.

44. Upon information and belief, these other individuals were not provided with required wage notices or weekly wage statements as specified in New York Labor Law §§ 195.1, 195.3, and the Wage Theft Prevention Act.

45. Upon information and belief, while the defendants employed the plaintiffs and the Collective Action Members, and through all relevant time periods, the defendants failed to maintain accurate and sufficient time records or provide accurate records to employees.

46. Upon information and belief, while the defendants employed the plaintiffs and the Collective Action Members, and through all relevant time periods, the defendants failed to post or keep posted a notice explaining the minimum wage and overtime pay rights provided by the FLSA or New York Labor Law.
